IMPROVED WIRE SERVICE.

Postal Company Installs New Equipment for New Copper Lines.

The end of the week will see installed in Salt Lake the most elaborate electrical and telegraphic equipment ever installed in the west. The Postal Telegraph Cable company has just completed the installation of three allcopper circuits of very large gage, which will give it three direct wires to San Francisco. These wires will be worked as quadruplex, that is, four men working at each end of the wire without interfering with each other, enabling them to handle four messages in different directions on each circuit without interfering. Across these copper wires will be bridged telegraph instruments and telephones for the pur-pose of testing along the route. The Postal company, in connection with the Company of the Postal company with the Commercial Cable company with the Commercial Cable company, which is the largest cable system in the world, having seven duplexed Atlantic direct cables, and all cable Pacific routes to the orient, are contemplating a reduction of the cable rates 50 per cent for plain language. Some years ago as a matter of telegraphic history, the Commercial Cable company reduced the rates from 50 cents a world reduced the rates from 50 cents a word to 25 cents a word. This brought a rate war between the cable companies, rate war between the cable companies, but after two years of struggle they all had to come to the reduced rates. Today, it looks like another rate war, as the Postal and the Commercial Ca-ble companies have under way arrangements with foreign governments, it is ments with foreign governments, it is said, to have the rates on cable messages reduced from 25 cents to 12½ cents per word, which is another reduction of 50 per cent.

With the installation of the new equipment here, Sait Lake will have a telegraphic service that will be the envy of all cities. In addition to the west wires, they are installing new copper wires from here to Denver, which will give them yery fast east wires. This wires from here to Denver, which will give them very fast east wires. This will make the service here very fast, and is of universal interest to the business and social life of the citras it makes a world-wide intelligence very much more easily obtained.

County Treasurer J. A. Groesbeck And His Deputies Are Kept Busy.

Saturday the Last Day for Making Payments Without Penalty Attached as Advertising Costs.

The United States mails are carry ing now the greater part of the tax money pouring into the office of County Treasurer J. A. Groesbeck. While the law fixes Nov. 15 as the last day for the payment of taxes, the county treasurer, with a view of cleaning up tax matters as much as possible, de cided to extend the time until Saturday of this week. After that date taxes are delinquent and 25 cents extra for each notice will be charged. The work of collecting $2,857,000, which is the total amount assessed for collection by the treasurer, is no little job. Mr. Groesbeck says that he is not in a position to give the total amount taken in thus far, but it is understood to be in excess of $2,000,000. understood to be in excess of $2,000,000. The collection Wednesday was a quarter of a million dollars, while on the day preceding $600,000 was taken in. Just how much will be taken in today is a matter of conjecture. Few people are paying taxes in person at the window, most of the tax money coming by way of checks through the mails. The largest taxpayers as a general rule prefer to use the mails and for that reason the mail receipts have been heavy. have been heavy.

Every precaution is taken to safe-guard the money of the people paid in as taxes. Few persons among those who stood in line, during the week, waiting for a chance to pay over their hard earned cash, realized that among the crowd were three deputy sheriffs, who kept a watchful eye on every-body. An attempt to hold-up the collector of the public money would have been a disastrous undertaking for those making the attempt.

have been a disastrous undertaking for those making the attempt.

To facilitate the collection of taxes in the county four deputy treasurers operated at Sandy, Midvale, Murray and Bingham. Up to the present the receipts at these places have not been heavy. These deputy treasurers will make report today or tomorrow to County Treasurer Groesteck.

The bank of McCornick & Co., is the official depository for the funds of the county and to this bank the money collected thus far has been taken. By nightfall practically no funds at all remain in the office of the county treasurer and so the busy burglar might 'burgle' to his heart's content and receive practically nothing for his pains.

A little later the funds collected will A little later the rands concered whe apportioned to the various departments as provided for by law.

Fred C. Bassett, county treasurer-elect, is now an attache of the treasurer's office. He has forsaken his duties as chief deputy in the county clerk's office and is busy getting onto the 'kinks and curves' of his new position. He will remain in the treasurer's office most likely until its affairs are turned over to his charge.

SALT LAKERS IN THE AIR.

Doris Davis Flies in the Wade-Davis Biplane.

Salt Lakers who wish to see an aeroplane in real flight need only to go down to the fair grounds any pleasant afternoon when there is not much wind and their wish will be gratified. Doris Davis and James Wade, a mechanical engineer, have been at work upon an aeroplane for some time past and last night Mr. Davis succeeded in making a short but convincing flight. aeroplane is a biplane of the Farman type and is said to have many improve-ments over the one that Louis Paulhan had at the fair grounds last winter. The filght was witnessed by a large crowd, and though the machine did not rise more than 10 feet from the ground, it could have been sent soaring into the air at any time, but Mr. Davis confessed that as he is yet inexperienced in the art of flying, he did not wish to take chances very high in the air on account of the growing darkness. During the short flight the machine was under perfect control both at the starting and alighting of the aeroplane. The propeller is driven by 40-h. p. engines.

There will be more trials of the flying machine until Mr. Davis has mastered it fully and dares to permit it to rise to any great height in the air. capitalists today contracted with the state of Wyoming, through the land board, to take over the Oregon Basin project, the largest individual irrigathon enterprise in the United States. One hundred and fifty thousand acres of tine land in the Big Horn basin will be reclaimed. The project which will involve the construction of many miles of canal, a big reservoir, tunnels, etc., will cost upwards of $2,500,000. The new company takes over the indebtedness of the old concern, that failed a year ago, and is given five years in which to complete its contract. Twenty-five thousand acres will be brought under the canals in time for the 1912 crops. The Burlington railroad has assured the capitalists that it will build through the proposed irrigated area just as soon as developments justify it. miles of canal, a big reservoir, tun
